MRS. E. H. LEGGETT ENTERTAINS

Mrs. E. H. Leggett was hostess at a lovely party Wednesday afternoon, December the seventeenth, at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. E. Hilliard, complimentary to the popular "Miss Harris."

Graciously receiving the guests was Mrs. Leggett, who invited them to a table beautiful in all of its appointments from which Mrs. S. A. Dunn and Mrs. Mammie Hoffman served delicious hot coffee and sandwiches.

The guests were then invited into the respective parlors and "friendly gossip" ran high until Mrs. A. Paul Kitchen passed score cards, each bearing the Christmas spirit expressed in a beautiful seal.

It took quite a few minutes for each person to find their respective partner and table, after which the intense interest of all was claimed at "Progressive Games." The "very day of youth," had seemingly returned as each and every one enjoyed again. "Old Maid," "Jack Straws," "Tiddler-Winks," etc.

At the conclusion of the games, it was found that several must enter for the prize. This, a beautiful narcissus, almost ready to burst into full bloom in a little vase of green was won by Mrs. R. D. House. She, in turn, presented it to Miss Harris.

Mrs. Leggett, then announced that "Old Santa" had called at her home and left something for every one present. These were found on a pretty attractive tree, which made all feel that "Christmas was really near."

No little excitement followed when Mrs. Leggett asked each to find her present on the tree. The surprise came, when all had secured their gifts, and Miss Harris was told that the remaining packages were for her. These were found to contain a shower of handsome linens, bespeaking only in a small way the love and esteem in which she is held by her many friends.

Miss Harris fittingly expressed her appreciation in a few well chosen words.

A delicious sweet course was then served by Mrs. Leggett, assisted by her mother and Mrs. Henry Hilliard.

The home was beautiful with potted plants and the ever fragrant narcissus, the pink shades of the lights casting a mellow glow over all.

About fifty enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Leggett.

Enables Her To Take Long Trip

Henkle Says Wife Improved So Much On Taking Taniae She Boasts Of Her Health.

"After years of suffering Taniae sure put my wife in a fine state of health and she often boasts of how well she is feeling," said George H. Henkle, of 1302 East and avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

"For years," he continued, "she was almost a confirmed dyspeptic and she suffered also from a nervous affection. Right after meals gas would form on her stomach, which kept her in distress most all of the time. She always had to be most careful about her eating and was troubled at times with dizziness and swimming of the head. For a long time she had wanted to take a trip north, but she couldn't do so on account of her condition."

"When she saw Taniae advertised and so many people endorsing it, she decided to try it and found almost immediate relief. Taniae gave her a fine appetite and put her stomach in fine shape so she could eat and enjoy her meals without having any trouble afterwards. She hasn't complained of dizziness or swimming of the head since, starting on it and that nervous condition has also quite disappeared. Taniae built her up so she was enabled to take a trip North, where she was gone four months, and she was not sick a minute of the whole time she was away. She is delighted with what Taniae has done for her and thinks there is no other medicine like it."

All druggists sell Taniae.
